

Barry Lynn Harms

December 4, 1958 - May 13, 2020

Barry Lynn Harms was born in 1958 in Salina, Kansas, the son of Elizabeth "Betty" Jane Hawkins and Leslie Willard Harms. He died on May 13, 2020, at the age of 61 in Wilmington, Delaware.

Barry was born and raised in Hutchinson, Kansas, the fourth out of five children. After graduating from Hillsboro High School in 1977, Barry joined the U.S. Air Force. While serving for his country he was an aircraft maintenance technician.

Barry was known for being the quintessential gentle giant with infectious laughter. He cherished the life-changing chance of worshipping and serving at The Sunday Breakfast Mission and affiliated churches. Barry had a way of showing patience and unconditional love to his family, friends, and strangers passing by on the street. He was very passionate about sharing the gospel with those around him in an inspiring way.

Barry L Harms is survived by his daughters, Anna Marie Harms of Munich, Germany and Sara Michelle Harms of Wilmington, DE. His grandchildren: Emily, Lillian, and Olivia; his brothers and sisters: Linda White of Joplin, MO; Roger (Cora) Harms of Warsaw, MO; Ron (Karen) Harms of Commerce City, CO; Leslie Ann (Jeffery) Hoffman of Cameron, OK; and Scott Harms of Pocola, OK. He was preceded in death by his parents, Leslie W Harms and Elizabeth "Betty" J Daugherty.

Services will be private. To send an online condolence, visit <http://www.stranofeeley.com>

Cemetery

Private

Comments

“ My Heart. My Bestfriend. My Daddy.

Sara Michelle - May 21, 2020 at 12:34 PM

“ Sara Michelle, my sincere condolences to you and your family and all of my brother's friends for our collective loss. Because of this virus we don't get the opportunity to properly celebrate or mourn the death of a love one. May Barry R.I.P. Amen

Raymond Patterson - May 24, 2020 at 05:30 PM

“ Thank you. Yes, this has been a hard time for me and my children. We adored him and he was our rock. We are figuring out what life looks like without him.

Sara - May 25, 2020 at 04:30 PM