“ I was Lorenzo's teacher for 2nd and 3rd grade and he was such a delight to have. He always was so positive and worked well with everyone. He was so smart and always tried his best on everything he did. I remember him being in the hospital during our 3rd grade year and Ms. Syken and I came to see him and bring him cards from his classmates. He was well liked because of his kind nature and ability to get along with everyone. Sending my deepest condolences to family and friends and know that he will be missed dearly.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Lorenzo's passing. He was a kind and friendly student at Colwyck and New Castle. After reading in his obituary that he always prayed with his grandmother (one of my favorite memories of my own grandmother), I read the following words in my prayer book, and they made me think of Lorenzo.

"They're deeply touched by the suffering of others. They're gentle and kind. They long for goodness in themselves and in others. They're merciful to those who struggle and fail. They're peaceful and leave behind a legacy of peace. They're kind to those who misuse them, returning good for evil. And they're blessed, a word that means "happy" in the deepest sense."

I hope memories of Lorenzo's love and kindness bring all of his family and friends comfort and peace.
