“ I am so sorry for your lost. He was a good teacher. I learned so much from his Sunday school lessons. He had an understanding of the Bible that made it come alive for me. I am so glad I got to know him. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My deepest condolences to Conita and family. Raymond Stacey was my deacon and Sunday School teacher, but most of all he was a great friend and I valued his leadership and friendship more than I can express. He kept me on my toes and we shared many laughs together. He will be sorely missed and heaven is surely a bit brighter because it gained a bright star.

In His Grip,
Reverend Don Bartell

“ I appreciate your Sunday School teachings, and they encouraged deeper study of the WORD for me. You have earned your rest, and you have been a good Steward, and a good friend! I shall miss our 'Breakfast chats', Brother Ray, and look forward to resuming them by and by. Rest in Peace! Isaiah 57: 1, 2
