In his retirement years he built a large collection of Indian artifacts from the family farm in Indiana. He often talked of his childhood dog, Spotty, and considered a more recent family dog, Lester, as his best buddy, but his greatest joy was when the entire family gathered together to celebrate every occasion they could think of.

“ Uncle Ted enjoyed a certain outdoor rustic element of the farm (complete with old catalogs) when he and Aunt Rose visited us in Indiana. He and Aunt Rose employed a science in locating arrowheads. Their visit was the highlight of our year.

“ I worked with Ted back in the late 70's and early 80's. I considered him a good friend who we often went for rides in the country area around work for lunch and had good discussions. Ted was one of the first who led me to the saving grace of our dear lord Jesus. I still have on my bedroom wall the Serenity Prayer that Ted gave me. RIP my old friend.

“ Ted has been my step father since I was 12. But he was much more than that. He was there for me and my mom and brothers for the remainder of his life. Then for my children and my brothers children. Again for my grandchildren and my brothers grandchildren!! The wonderful memories of him are too numerous to count! I love and miss him so much already, but I know he is now in the everlasting arms of our Lord and Savior.
