“ I cared for Adam one day at Hopkins and was very touched by this sweet little boy. The loss of a child is very difficult for pediatric nurses and as a mom it's twice as hard. I'm very sorry for your loss. I hope your memories of Adam bring comfort during this difficult time. ~ Nurse Karen

“ Dear Jennifer and Jason, Im so sorry for the loss of your young son. It is hard enough to try to put into words the emotions you are dealing with right now. True comfort can only be found by knowing the true Creator. Knowing that He hates death: he even views it as an enemy.(1 Corinthian 15:26) He has “a yearning” to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again-Job 14:14,15. And for the mean time“ He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds.”(Psalms 147:3). So trust that He can comfort you.

“ Adam was our 7 year old daughters best buddy. He was an amazing boy. He lived in the moment and life to the fullest. He made all of us around him smile and laugh. He had the giant smile with the cutest dimples ever. Love you Evans family.

“ Sorry, I have no memory to share but I do have compassion for all of you. When I looked at the picture of your beautiful little boy my heart ached, most especially for his little twin. All of you are suffering but his twin will have a very difficult time. I did not know any of you, but I had a twin who recently died and Just knowing your little boy was a twin brought me to tears. Losing a sibling is terrible but when you lose your twin it is devastating. I am only to the point that I tell myself that my twin is just away for now and I will be with her again. I want you to know that although I don't live near you as I live in Laurel, De, I will keep all of you in my prayers.
