“ Mariane,

I am so sorry for you. How time has passed so quickly. I remember standing on the corner, across from your house, waiting for the bus to pick us up for Holy Spirit. Then there was the many times your mom would make you play the piano for me. I am sorry that I won't be able to be there tomorrow but I want you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

At last your mom is at peace with your dad and Our Lord.

So very sorry,

Patricia Pryor Wright

“ Marianne, I am so sorry to learn of the loss of your mother. I live in Richmond, VA now and won't be able to come up for the funeral, but I wanted to express my deepest condolences. I lost my mom in '97 and dad in '01. What a beautiful picture of your mom. She still looks the same even at 86. She lived a good, long life. God rest her soul.

P.S. I'm on Facebook if you ever want to get in touch. Take care.

“ One of my fondest memories of Addie happened when I was about 4 or 5 years old. Addie was my babysitter during the day while my Mom was working at a restaurant on Maryland Ave. For some reason, known only to me, it seemed a great idea to LOCK HER DOWN IN THE BASEMENT! I also thought it a super idea to throw the key into the stove.

Eventually, Addie gained her freedom by climbing out the basement window (which faced Maryland Ave) through the gracious assistance of a passing pedestrian who was a complete stranger. I always liked that story because it showed how smart and ingenious Addie was in the face of such devious behaviour on my part.

Addie will forever remain in my heart as always being there as a big cousin and friend. Joan and I will miss her greatly.

*In deepest sympathy,
Ron & Joan Sabbato*
