“ I met Alice almost 8 years ago when I started working at the courthouse and we would wait for the bus together sharing stories after another day at work. I miss her sweet spirit! Her family is in my prayers!

Alice, I pray that this candle burns bright in your heart as it will in mine until we meet again. I love you and will miss you every day. You were the best big sister a kid sister could have.

“ I rode the Dart bus with Alice for many years and she was a great person to talk with. I was injured on the bus back in 2008 and something had told Alice to grab a bunch of paper towels before she left home. She wasn't going to but decided she better and it was a good thing because they used everyone of them to put pressure on my leg. The few times I was able to join a group of women to share a meal with Alice was very rewarding as well. I have missed her and she will always have a special place in my heart.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. When I have experienced the loss of a loved one, I found great comfort the words of Jesus, at John 11:11, where he likens death to being asleep, and at John 5:28,29 - "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." What a joy to be able to see our loved ones again. For more comfort, I use www.jw.org.
