“ To: Alvin, Willa, and Richie -- Jim and Betty Murphy and son Timothy send our condolences at the death of your Dad and our friend and brother in the Lord. We called Alvin and your mother "special friends". It was an honor and privilege to know him. I worked with him in the Full Gospel Business Men Fellowship for a long time. We enjoyed many good times together. His love for Christ and his work for the Lord was encouraging to all. Sorry we could not attend the services, Tim in South Carolina with his knee replacement problems and Betty with her walking difficulties hinder us from attending.

“ Alvin and Richie,
I'm deeply sorry in the loss of your dad. How special is it to carry through your lives the wonderful memories of sharing the ball field and the faith and love of Christ with your dad. A great combination - the physical love of the game and the spiritual love of the Savior. You've been blessed to share both with your respected dad. I know you'll miss him. I'm thankful for the numerous times of conversation and fellowship I've shared with him....and I will happily remember them and him. The Lord enrich and use you, as you move forward, carrying thankfully the wonderful memories of your father. Love and prayers, Bill Bowen
