“ Dad

*I can't tell you dad
How many tears I've cried
Since the day I was told
My precious Dad had died.*

*It seems so impossible
Although I know it's true
As everything I see around
Reminds me , of you .*

*I can still hear your laughter
And see your smiling face
I would have lost my sanity
If not, for Gods saving grace.*

*I have to close this letter now,
But this is not goodbye
For you will forever be with me
In my heart and mind.*

*Love always and forever

“ Dear Anna , we, your colleagues will certainly miss seeing you bringing in your dad for his check-ups. He always had a funny story to tell and he always said how much he appreciated you and all you do for him. You took such great care of him and know that he truly was grateful for all you did, especially how you made him laugh. His eyes would light up every time he spoke your name. You were a wonderful daughter to him and he was proud of you. Always remember the good times you shared. Our sincerest condolences to you and your family.

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say.
But first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there are no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love.
Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I am with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through.
God picked me up and hugged me then He said I welcome you.
It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.

As for your dearest family, they will be here later on.
I need you here so badly, you are part of my plan.
There is so much that we can do, to help our mortal man.
God gave me a list of things that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.
When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years.
Because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was rain.
I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.
If I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is over.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.

There are rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
But together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too;
That as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.
If you can help somebody who is in sorrow and pain;
Then you can say to God at night....My day was not in vain.
And now I am contented... that my life was worthwhile.
Knowing as I passed along the way I made somebody smile.
So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low;
Just lend a hand to pick them up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street and you've got me on your mind;

I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.

And when it's time for you to go...from that body to be free.

Remember you're not going...you're coming here to me.

Dad I know your with so many loved ones who passed before you, your parents Abuelo, Abuela, Tio Ralphie, Tio Chico, Abuela Julia and mom now. You will be missed and forever in our hearts. We
