“ I think the fondest memory I have of my Aunt Betty is when she was coming home from the hospital after having the twins, Donna and Dawn. I was over their house and Peggy and I decided we would spruce things up for her before she got home. (keep in mind that I was only about 8) I was in charge of mopping the kitchen floor. I used so much soap it was as slippery as a skating rink. Aunt Betty just hugged me and thanked me for such a good job. She was so sweet and never let me know the mess I made. I will miss her her sweet personality.-Kim
