

Antoinette DiPietro Magrino

June 12, 1936 - January 21, 2025

Antoinette DiPietro Magrino, 88, of Newark, Delaware, passed away on January 21, 2025. Born on June 12, 1936, in New York, NY, to Lillian Martino DiPietro and Salvatore DiPietro, Antoinette embraced her Italian heritage with pride and lived a life centered on love, family, and tradition.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Salvatore Magrino; her cherished son, Louis Magrino; and her dear sisters: Marie Couvertier, Carmella Couvertier, Pauline Kubler, and Rosalie DeSoto.

Antoinette is survived by her devoted sisters: Jane Magrino, Josephine Meogrossi, and Virginia Albright. She also leaves behind a large, devoted family of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews, who adored her deeply and will forever cherish the countless memories they shared.

Known for her strong Italian heritage, Antoinette was an extraordinary cook who brought her family together with her delicious meals and recipes passed down through generations. She had a gift for making everyone feel welcome and loved at her table.

Antoinette's happiest moments were spent surrounded by family, whether playing cards—especially Canasta—enjoying a lively game of bingo or simply sharing laughter and stories. She was the heart of her family, and her warmth, generosity, and love for life will be deeply missed.

Antoinette's legacy of love, family, and tradition will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She is now reunited with her loved ones who passed before her, and her memory will forever be a blessing to those she leaves behind.
