“ My Earliest memories of Archie was when we met at Faith Presbyterean Church. I was just 20 years of age. As a college student, I had come home to attend Goldey Beacom College. After spending two years away from home, I discovered some of my friends had left my old church and started to attend Faith. As I started to atend Faith, I felt very nervous because I doing something totally on my own. Faith was blessed to have so many friendly deacons and elders. Archie was one of them. When we got to know each other, the nervousness faded. Archie kindness, and ability to listen to me helped me to feel like someone important. His insight aloing with many others, helped me to establish roots not only in a Church, but brought me closer to God. I will truly miss him. Thanks, Archie!!!!

“ Dear Donna and family,
What a blessing for me to have met your father! It was such an honor to have helped support him. It was clear that he lived his life with honor and integrity that was grounded in his deep faith. His gentle spirit, smile, sense of independence and character were what made him so endearing to me. Above all, I was touched by how much he loved his family. You and your dad will remain in my prayers and my heart.
My deepest condolences,
Lisa Carr (DE Hospice)

“ Margot and I send our most sincere sympathy to the entire family. Archie was certainly one of our favorite brothers in the Lord and his great faith and genuine Christian love was such a blessing to us. One of my favorite things to do with Archie was to kid him how it was he, as a WW2 vet, who taught Audie Murphy (most decorated vet in WW2) everything he knew. Archie's sweet spirit and quiet joy will be surely missed by us. Until we meet again Archie

“ When I think of Archie, to my mind he was a warm, humble, gentle man. He was always a source of encouragement to me, and wise in the things of the Lord. I count him as a true friend and brother in Christ! All who knew him will miss him. But for now, he is "absent from his body and present with his Lord" that he had faithfully served during his earthly pilgrimage. For Donna and other loved ones that Archie has temporarily left behind, please know that you will be in our prayers and thoughts. Sincerely, Al Shue

“ Archie's "Joy in the Lord" spilled over into my life, and my father's life. We are grateful to have been blessed by him. Our prayers are that Donna and the entire family will be strengthened in the hope found in God's promises to His children....knowing one day you will reunite: in perfect eternity together.

With love,
Nathan & Cynthia Marshall
