“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Barbara. I am one of the nurses at the Breast Center. I first met Barbara met when she was originally diagnosed with breast cancer. We later realized we grew up together in the same neighborhood, and were able to share some similar childhood memories. She was such a sweet and gentle person who left a lasting impression. She was a source of inspiration for so many other women. She frequently provided crafts and helped us at our annual Breast Festivals in Octol will forever remember her. She gave me a locket with her picture inside, which I will cherish forever. I wear it at many of our Breast Cancer awareness events, and think of her often. May God bless your family at this extremely difficult time.
Sincerely,
Joanne Antonio
