

Bradley James Bosarge

May 20, 1983 - October 27, 2016

Bradley James “Brad” Bosarge, 33, of New Castle, Delaware finally found peace on Thursday, October 27, 2016. Brad was a graduate of Delcastle Technical High School. He attended University of Delaware to pursue a degree in electrical engineering on a scholarship. He will forever be remembered by his bright smile, big heart, and smart mind.

Bradley is survived by his wonderful and spirited mother, Janice Bosarge; his beloved sister, Deborah Bosarge-Lux; his two beautiful children, Brayden and Brielle Bosarge; the mother of his children and the love of his life, Jamie Schuler; his two adored nieces, Samantha and Sabrina Lux; his brother in law, Michael Lux; his father, Jim McLaughlin; and many other family and friends who were lucky enough to know him.

A visitation will be held Tuesday, November, 1, 2016 from 1:30-3 PM followed by a service in celebration of Bradley’s life at 3 PM. Burial will be private. For directions or to send an online condolence visit www.stranofeeley.com

*Dearest Sami, Debbie, Janice & Brina,
There are no words to comfort your sad broken hearts. Hold close your photos of Brad & the happy memories spent together.
Days will pass, they will, & you will laugh & talk of Brad as though he was beside you.....you will feel his warmth.
Remember forever, he loved you all very, very much.*

“ I've known Brad since I was about 13ish, he was definitely one of a kind! He was the light of the party at all times, and would help anybody in need! I seen him about 2 months ago and really didn't talk much after that due to our different paths. He will be truly missed!
