“ O so much that i want to say. Brain spent his spare time, for the last 10 years loving me. Wether we were livin together or not, on or off, we never stopped loving each other. He was done fishing when he caught me. Forever in my heart Brian will be. My life forever changed.

Unfortunately we were denied our last good bye. But until we meet again, my soulmate you will be missed.

“ God bless you all. When ever we were all together at a family function, Brian always made it a point to hug and kiss me on the cheek and to shake my husband's hand. We knew him before we knew his beautiful daughter Samantha, who I'm honored to say is our daughter in law. RIP Brian.

“ The first time I met Brian, he was helping me and his Uncle "Mickey" move some things. He treated me like I was family from that second on. The last time I saw him was around Christmas and he looked so good and so happy. I feel blessed that I was fortunate to meet such a kind, kind person. Hugs and prayers for the entire family.
