“ I knew Carolyn through her daughter Jordan. She was very smart, a good listener, and curious about the world around her. I always felt at ease in her company and she always took what I said without judgment. She did so many things well and was a great example to me of someone who sort of took the world in her arms, including everyone she ever met. She'll definitely be missed very much.

My condolences to Gary, Jordan, and Taylor.

“ I had the immense pleasure of knowing Carolyn during our stints at Active Apparel Group about twenty years ago. We would rock out to Hanson in our cubicles next to each other. And while we haven't seen each other in person, I truly treasured the friendship that remained and our emails back and forth talking deeply about our daughters, life and the Lord. May God bless her as she is welcomed home, and I pray for healing for her beautiful family ❤️🙏

“ Carolyn (a.k.a. Amy) was a joyous soul. She loved the Lord, life, and family. She was a whiz on the computer conducting a business which she owned, and often found last minute flights for family and friends who were stranded at the airport and otherwise. She always remembered my special days and would mail me joyful greeting cards to lift my spirit, and a bouquet of flowers. We'll miss her very much. Rest in eternal peace, my dear.
