“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your wife and mother. She really was a lovely lady and when we did meet it was always a great conversation. Our families knew each other from Little Italy. I was happy to have known Cathy and your family.

“ From Saturday night Piccnocle to family reunions to visit on Lincoln street to Johnnys Bakery and so much more I will remember all the great times and laughter that she brought to us! Her smile said it all! God forbid she should be dealt a bad Piccnocle she would stand up say an expletive and walk around the chair! So much joy and fun and laughter I will miss but always remember. Rest In Peace cousin and say hello to all our family that preceded you! All my love. Vince
