

Charles Thomas "Char Char" Smith

October 25, 1986 - September 24, 2020

Charles Thomas Smith, 33, of Bear, Delaware, known affectionately as "Char Char" or "Little Charlie" to family and friends, passed away on September 24, 2020, with his mother, brother and aunt by his side. Char Char was born on October 25, 1986 in Wilmington, Delaware and grew up in Bear. He was an avid outdoorsman who loved to fish and root for his Dallas Cowboys. But more than anything, Charlie loved to be around family and friends.

Char Char is survived by the loves of his life, his daughters, Jamison and Cheyenne. He is also survived by his mother, Kathleen Megginson; brother, Jason Megginson; sister, Ashley Smith, all of Smyrna, Delaware as well as his dog "Camo". Charlie is also survived by his maternal aunts: Terri Neece and her husband Rick, Sharon Almondo and Linda Condella; maternal uncles: Joe Megginson and his wife Lisa, Charlie Megginson and his wife Sissy, and Mike Maugle and his wife Lori. Char Char also leaves behind more than 20 cousins, his roommates, Craig Minker and CJ Craft and hundreds of friends.

Char Char was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Joseph & Barbara Megginson, whom he loved very much; his uncles, Tommy Megginson, Larry Kirby; and his cousin, Brandon Maugle.

A celebration of his life will be scheduled in late October and will be announced once the arrangements have been finalized. In lieu of flowers, the family is seeking donations on a go fund me account to help cover the costs of his final arrangements.

“ Charlie- I am going to miss you & your unconditional, unlimited hugs! I will forever cherish all the memories we have shared growing up together. Thank you for having my back. I will be missing you until we meet again, especially at any family gathering that I know you would be at if you were still with us physically. Until then, you will be in my heart and on my mind. I love you.
