“ chris had been in and out of our life over the years, and recently, after running into him while he was working at Lowe's, he felt the Lord called him to bring us bread to distribute to people we felt were in need. We renewed our friendship through his bread ministry and enjoyed spending many an evening reminiscing or sharing stories with him about how the Lord has worked in our lives through the years. he visited with us only last Wednesday and I will feel a loss, as I really enjoyed his enthusiasm and sense of wonder and hope in what the Lord had and would be doing in our lives.##imported-begin##Karen Webster##imported-end## ”

“ My heartfelt prayers and condolence go out to Chris's family and friends. He will always be remembered as a warm and compassionate friend to myself and my family. He was a kind, patient and giving soul and this world will surely miss a man like Chris. He was my friend, my handyman and was inspirational to me in our conversations about life. The giver of "fish and "bread" to those in need, and so much more. I will miss you always. May you find peace with the LORD in His Heavenly Home. Send me a sign from time to time, I'll be with you in spirit. Your Loving Friend...Lori##imported-begin##Lori Dingley ##imported-end##
