“ I'd played softball with Cark on the Delaware Caps team. He loved to play the game, He was a team player and was well like by his other team mates. God must of needed a starting third basemen for his softball team.
My Condolences to his family.

“ I have been friends of Clark & Karen for many years. Our kids used to play together when they were young. I always remember Clark as a hard worker and a good father. He would always make me laugh with his joking. I will miss you my friend. R.I.P.
