“ I just got the word on Uncle Clyde's passing. I'm so sadden for his loss. I too will forever have fond memories of Uncle Clyde and family on those rare visits to see each other. My last opportunity to visit him was in 1999 or 2000 when by the grace of God my military unit spent the night at a hotel in New Carrollton. I managed to frantically find his home that one evening and visit him for a couple of hours. He didn't recognize me at first thinking I was a boy scout as I was dressed in my military flight suit. But that visit meant a lot to me. My condolences to Stephen and Roselyn. God bless you all.

“ I will never forget the fond memories of Uncle Clyde and his family! I truly looked forward seeing the Morton family coming down the gravel road to visit our family in Iowa and to hear all about their travels; man did he have a cool van! My senior year of college I chose to do my internship at the University of Maryland and spend the summer with Aunt Loretta and Uncle Clyde and travel around the east coast. He always had a smile when I tried to sign :) Uncle Clyde took me down to the Washington Monument to take in the 4th of July fireworks at our capitol...how AWSOME! May peace be with you and love to Roselyn and Stephens families, your cuz Rosetta

“ Uncle Clyde holds a special place in my heart and mind with his family trips to the farm in Iowa. More specifically Clyde and Loretta were the consummate hosts and tour guides when I accompanied my mother, Aunt Wilma, on a 10 day trip to stay with them in Maryland around 1990. I learned alot. With loving thoughts...

“ On behalf of the Ammons family, I send deepest condolences to the Morton family for the recent loss. I do have some vivid memories of having interesting chats with Clyde at different events for the Deaf in Metro D.C. He and I shared the same interest- traveling. May he rest in peace.
