

Cora Jeanette Lindsay

December 21, 1930 - July 16, 2022

Referred to mostly by her middle name; Jeanette and affectionately called Mother Lindsay by many, Cora Jeanette Lindsay was born to the late Mary Elizabeth Brown and Clinton Caulk on December 21, 1930, in Townsend, Delaware.

She received her formal education in the Louis L. Redding School System. Cora was bonded in holy matrimony to the late William Lorenzo Lindsay (Bill) on May 25, 1959. They created a beautiful family and enjoyed 57 years of marriage until his passing in 2016. Their home was a haven to many.

Highly respected for her strong resolve and work ethic, joyfully kind and inviting nature, her heart for service, and sincere love for all, Cora held various positions that served to positively impact and influence, both, her natural and spiritual families. Recognized for her meticulous organizational and culinary skills, Cora was called upon, consistently, and could be found working diligently in fundraising efforts among other committees including serving as a Deaconess at Sharon Temple Seventh Day Adventist Church and on the Mother's Board at The Cathedral of Fresh Fire, Inc. under the leadership of the late Bishop Emma L. Creamer.

It is this same spirit of service she used in her community by dutifully serving as a Board of Elections volunteer in addition to being a strong advocate dedicated to the fight against many diseases that plague our world such as heart disease, diabetes, and multiple sclerosis. Cora's advocacy was more than lip service as evidenced by her endeavors to canvass her neighborhood to spread awareness and champion the cause for donations designated to help further research efforts.

A classy woman with an eye for fashion, she too held a gift to sing and dance. This coupled with a love for music; Cora also had a deep passion for reciting poetry by Rudyard Kipling with her children and grandchildren, whom she adored as family gatherings were inexplicably dear to her heart. And, if these were not special enough, she could identify many species of birds and imitate bird calls with precision.

Until her passing, Cora was a proud member of New Life Christian Center under the leadership of Pastor David Pope.

Cora Jeanette Lindsay went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, July 16, 2022. She leaves to cherish her memory and legacy, her daughters: Angeline DeJarnette, Miriam Larkin, Lenora Hicks (William Hicks), Myra Lindsay, and Tammy Lindsay; one devoted brother: Walter Tyrone Brown; ten grandchildren: and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and other close relatives and friends.

Cora Jeanette Lindsay was preceded in death by her husband: William (Bill) Lindsay, daughter: Mary E. Sudler, siblings; Clarence Elliott, Lillian "Peggy" Waters, Floyd Elliott, Donald Brown, Alice Brown-Skinner, and Richard Brown; her son-in-law: Larry DeJarnette; and her grandson: Myron L.
