“ I met David through his wife Donna who raised all three of my Yorkshire terriers. David took care of my health insurance policy when I retired as a teacher. He was a kind and loving gentleman who lived the gospel message in a very quiet gentle manner. With his dry sense of humor he managed to live through life's daily trials with faith and a deep acceptance of God's Presence in his life. I shared holiday celebrations with the Frost family having the privilege of fellowship with David several times. Hospitality was David's hallmark, a legacy that hopefully will live on in those of us who knew and loved him. This Catholic Sister will carry him in her heart, grateful to God for the gift of his life in this world and the one in which he now lives.

Though his early pilgrimage is done as he has graduated to a better plane, Brother Frost's testimony will live on in the memory of those of us who knew him. He was an excellent man and tremendous servant of God. He was a brother always filled with grace and encouragement. I thank the Lord for his personal interest in our ministry. Though his "shoes" will never be filled, may others who have seen his testimony and experienced his favor come alongside now and fill the void that will be left. This earth knows not many of his kind; we will miss him and look forward to enjoying his fellowship again in glory one day - maybe soon! Even so come Lord Jesus.

David Frost was one of the dearest friends that Melvin and I have ever had for over 50 years. Mel met Dave first when he came from Ohio to visit his parents after they moved here. We soon all became friends after he moved here and met Donna. We have shared both happiness and sorrow through the years and keep the friendship in tack our boys called him uncle as well as their children calling us aunt and uncle. Words can not express how much Dave will be missed not only by his family but his friends also. There is no way anyone can squeeze our 50 years of feeling into this little box.

Dave we will miss you and Donna we love you and the girls.
