“ My mother saw the angel in you Debbie when we first started to play together as young kids. She welcomed you with open arms and you became the sister I never had. I hold dear the memories of us twirling the baton in my back yard to doing chores together and earning an allowance for our yearly Wildwood vacations. You suffered the same illness as my mother and now you can R.I.P. with her as I am sure she greeted you with open arms. You will never be really gone as your love and friendship will remain forever in our hearts. I pray for your family that their memories of you will wipe away their tears and knowing you are in a better place will bring them peace. Forever my sister in my heart. Linda J Barczak

“ Thank you for welcoming me into your home and giving me an amazing life long best friend. You have forever influenced my life in a positive and incredible way. Also, thank you for allowing my brother and I to use your backyard as a shortcut to catch the school bus when we missed it and save time on walking. You have no idea how much that helped us! =D

There's no doubt your in God's home now. Love you.

I never did know you, but for what one can see, you were a blessing to our world. A wonderful mother, and a wonderful friend. I send my condolences, to the entire family.

But, it is in death, that we learn- though nothing is eternal, we may forever keep memories, and hope.... and most of all, love in our hearts.

“ To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text is Job 14:14,15 which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).

An angel has been called to be in Heaven. It is a sad time for the family and mourning the loss of an awesom sister it will be. Debbie has always been someone who is 110% for her family and it reflects on how she lived her precious life. I love you so much sister and will keep you foreve in my heart. You are now the Guardian Angel for the family and that will be a blessing itself. I promise you that I will be there for the kids and help out your husband, my borhter in law.
