

Deborah Lynn Schrader

January 3, 1964 - March 27, 2025

Deborah Lynn Schrader, age 61, of Newark, DE passed away peacefully at home on March 27, 2025. Debbie was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Frances (Seneck) Stanson and Samuel Stanson. She worked as an accounting clerk in the automotive industry. Debbie will forever be a loving wife, mom, sister, and mom-mom. Debbie enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, traveling, and watching her TV shows over and over. She was also an avid Baltimore Orioles and Ravens fan. Debbie was deeply cherished and will be forever missed.

Debbie is survived by her husband of 35 years, Ralph "Buckie" Schrader; her children: Dale (Jessica), Derrick (Stacey), and Shannon (Andrew); her brothers: Bob (Cathy), Rick (April), & Mike (Heather); her brother-in-law Steve (Susan), sister-in-law Pam (Mike), and sister-in-law Joyce; and six grandchildren: Madison, Caydence, Reese, Lydia, Adalyn, and Josie. Debbie was preceded in death by her parents, Frances and Samuel Stanson.

Services and burial for Debbie will be private. To send an online condolence please visit www.stranofeeley.com

Strano & Feeley

Family Funeral Home

302-731-5459

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

MW

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know Debbie very long but she was always so kind, and absolutely loved talking about her grandchildren. Sending prayers to your family.

Michelle Worrall - April 06, 2025 at 02:20 PM

MG

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Debbie always lit up when talking about her Grandchildren. I will miss working with her at Hertrich. We worked together for the 2 years she worked at Hertrich.

Michele GETTY - April 04, 2025 at 03:54 PM