

Deborah Ann (Beardsley) Truscinski

September 5, 1959 - October 9, 2023

Deborah Ann (Beardsley) Truscinski, age 64, passed away unexpectedly on October 9, 2023. Deborah was born September 5, 1959, in Chester, Pennsylvania and lived most of her life in New Castle, Delaware. She was a graduate of William Penn High School and Delaware Tech. Debbie worked as a Registered Nurse for many years and was very proud to receive her college degree as a single mom with young children. During her nursing career, Deborah was honored to receive an award from Bayada for outstanding nursing care. She was an avid reader and enjoyed crossword puzzles.

Debbie is survived by her children whom she loved, Rebecca Truscinski (Fiancé Jay Bass) and CJ Roberts, Jr.; and her grandchildren who were often the sunshine in her days, Alyssa and Becca Nicole. Debbie was predeceased by her daughter, Nicole Truscinski, whom she has missed every second of every day for the past 17 years. Our only consolation as a family is to know the joy it must be for her to be welcomed into the loving and forgiving arms of Jesus and her beautiful daughter. Deborah is also predeceased by her parents, Thomas and Barbara Beardsley, Sr.; and CJ's dad, Claude Roberts, Sr.

Debbie was a loving sister to John (Elaine) Beardsley, Thomas (Valerie) Beardsley, Bonnie (Joe) Shahan, and Barbie (Vincent) Celano. Her memory will be treasured by many nieces and nephews, aunts, an uncle, many cousins and friends whom she always greeted with a big smile and a warm hug. Her smile could light up the room and her bubbly personality and joyful laughter will forever be etched in our hearts. Debbie was one of a kind. But even the brightest smile can hide the darkness only for so long. Unfortunately, depression is a disease that affects many. Donations may be made to Suicide Prevention or NAMI in honor of Debbie and in memory of her daughter, Nicole.

Please join us in a celebration of life on Thursday, October 19, 2023, at Strano & Feeley Family Funeral Home, 635 Churchman's Rd Newark, DE 19702. “ I wish I was there today to celebrate your life. We grew up together, for a little while, sharing the same birthday month & same grade. We always had fun as kids whenever our family had a get together or just hanging out at Mother's house. Rest in Peace Deb! You were a treasure.

“Debbie was a guardian to angel sent by GOD to my son when he came home from the hospital. She started with our family when she was working at Christiana Care as a visiting nurse and all I can say is GOD knew what he was doing when he allowed our paths to cross but who would have known that at that moment she would end up in our lives for the next 5 years to come. Upon her first visit to our home, she came on the 7th day of my son being out of the NICU. Of all the nurses that came to visit that week, she was the only one who made me show her that I knew how to perform CPR on an infant. All of the other nurses just simply asked me the question and then moved on. I had to use that CPR a few hours after she left to resuscitate my son. But GOD didn't stop there... after a year of surgeries, my son received a tracheostomy. Not having seen or heard from nurse Debbie after that day, on his next trip home, we received day and night nurses thru another company and praise the Lord... nurse Debbie was his in home nurse for the next 4 years. I am truly thankful that GOD allowed our paths to cross and my prayers and condolences go out to you and your family. What started out as a 1 time visit turned into a lifelong friendship. She will truly be missed!

“ Mama Debs I have so much to say but not enough room.. 5years ago I met you and boy have it been good times . I'm miss your bright smile, your bubbly personality, walking around the house singing country music and your hugs. I'll miss buying your favorite scent Vanilla and Lavender for you every holiday. Coming to the house and coming to the room and just talking. You definitely knew how to cheer up someone's day. You will always have a special place in my heart. Rest easy up there I'm sure your dancing around with the angel's singing already.. prayers and condolences to the family.
