“ Dear Family, Donna was my childhood best friend. We grew up on Columbia Avenue in Wilmington stayed best friends after she moved to Newark with her parents. I reached out to Donna about year and half ago when she was in the hospital and sent her flowers. I am really sad that she has passed away, and hope she is free of all pain. I will never forget you Donna rest in peace my friend. Christine Joswick Clements

“ I remember meeting Donna in Jacksonville Fl. when she and Dennis were newly weds. Donna was so tiny and all she kept saying was how beautiful Jamie was and I remember how she could train any animal. She was an animal whisperer! We love you Donna!
Time to rest!
