“ Condolences to all the Hansen family. I knew Doris and John from Chestnut Run. What a wonderful couple! I worked with Doris in the 702 building toward the beginning of my 35 year career at DuPont. She was a wonderful Christian woman. Never said a bad word about anyone and was encouraging to us younger employees. She adored her girls, Karen and Kim, and was always talking about them and what was going on in their lives. Doris...be at peace. I will always remember your smile and that twinkle in you eyes.

“ So sorry for your lost. But praise Jesus we know she is in the arms of Jesus, John, and Amy. Praying for the Lord to give your family comfort. I loved the beautiful smile she always had. Thanking Jesus for the friendship we had. She was such a blessing to me.
