In the midst of unimaginable loss, we have also witnessed something deeply powerful, the kindness of others. Because of the generosity, prayers, and support from so many, the GoFundMe was able to help provide a proper farewell for Dorothy and her family.

This has been a reminder that even in the darkest moments, there are still good people in this world. People who give, who pray, who show up with love when it is needed most.

We are truly grateful for every single person who donated, shared, prayed, and stood beside this family. Your compassion has made a lasting difference and brought comfort during a time of deep sorrow.

To the family, may you feel God's presence surrounding you, His peace covering you, and His strength carrying you through the days ahead. Dorothy's life and love will never be forgotten
