

Eleanor A. Trimarco

August 15, 1944 - December 2, 2024

Eleanor A. Trimarco, 80, of Newark, Delaware, passed away peacefully on December 2, 2024. Born on August 15, 1944, to the late Alvin and Henrietta Daisey, Eleanor began her remarkable life on the A&H Family Farm in Dagsboro, Delaware. Her upbringing instilled a strong work ethic and a deep appreciation for the simple joys of life.

In her 20s, Eleanor relocated to New Castle County to pursue a career as a hair stylist, showcasing her natural flair for beauty. She later joined Avon Products in Newark, where she spent over 30 years cultivating lifelong friendships and excelling in her work until her retirement.

Eleanor had many talents and passions, but none shone brighter than her love of food, gardening, and family. Her green thumb yielded a bountiful garden that she loved to can and share with others, while her culinary expertise made her the heart of every gathering. Seafood held a special place in her heart, with blue crabs topping her list of favorites. For Eleanor, nothing compared to the laughter and storytelling accompanying a family and friends crab feast. A testament to her culinary prowess, she was once featured in The Delaware News Journal for her signature Cajun shrimp dish, a cherished family tradition every New Year's Eve.

A true adventurer at heart, Eleanor's passion for travel began with her honeymoon in Cape Cod, Massachusetts. Cape Cod became a cherished destination, a place she and her husband, Bobby, revisited time and again. One fortuitous trip to Atlantic City changed everything when a casino win funded their first cruise—sparking a love affair with the open seas spanning decades. From the Caribbean to the Panama Canal, Hawaii to Italy, Eleanor reveled in exploring new destinations. Even as COVID loomed, she embarked on one final cruise, reminding her family, “I’m going to live my life while I can.”

Eleanor’s adventurous spirit and love for life were matched only by her dedication to family and friends. Her warmth, kindness, and vibrant personality left an indelible mark on everyone she met. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a doting mom-mom whose unwavering support and genuine joy in others’ happiness will be forever cherished.

Eleanor is survived by her devoted husband of 41 years, Robert “Bobby” Trimarco; her daughters, Kelly Malloy of Howell, NJ, and Jennifer Prather (Dan) of Roseburg, OR; her grandsons: Leif, Wyatt, Trey, Aidan, Sean, and Quinn; and her brothers, Harry Daisey (Sally) and Bruce Daisey (Ruth). She is also remembered by countless extended family members and dear friends. She was predeceased by her parents, Alvin and Henrietta Daisey.

Eleanor’s memory will remain etched in the hearts of all who knew her, a testament to a life well-lived and well-loved.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Eleanor’s life on Tuesday, December 10, 2024. A visitation will be held from 9:30 AM to 11:00 AM at Strano & Feeley Family Funeral Home, 635 Churchmans Road, Newark, Delaware. A service will follow at 11:00 AM, with interment immediately afterward at All Saints Cemetery, 6001 Kirkwood Highway, Wilmington, Delaware.

In honoring Eleanor's memory, consider embracing her zest for life—whether through a shared meal, a new adventure, or a kind gesture to brighten someone's day. For directions or to send an online condolence, visit www.stranofeeley.com

“ I will always remember our working relationship, Eleanor's love of good food and the day she met Bobby. She was a special person that had such a zest for life. I have not seen her in years, but was glad to hear how she was traveling and living the good life. Rest in peace Eleanor...you will be missed.

“ Now my big sister is at peace. She was the best sister a little brother could have wished for. It seems that we grew closer after the passing of our mother. I'm really going to miss our weekly calls where we would catch up. We would share our gardening progress and talk about our love of seafood. Her love of seafood was undeniable especially her love of oysters. I especially remember her and Bobby's last cruise with Ruth and I. We were the last cruise coming in when Covid broke out. It was a very special time together enjoying the Caribbean. I hope Eleanor knows that Ruth and I will be there for Bobby. We will make sure he gets to Pizza Palace.

“ RIP my dear friend for 51 years💔😞😞 There are so many wonderful memories through those 51 years including her delicious cooking, eating crabs, playing parcheesi, teaching me to clam with my toes, trip to her grandmother's in Hollywood, Fla, work trips, Avon softball, bowling, 25 year club dinners and all the laughter and fun we had through those years. There are so many more! I will miss our birthday calls and calls to just say Hi in the coming years! 🙏❤️😞 Miss you and Love you E!
