“ Fred was one of the best builders I've known. He had great ideas about remodeling, I picked his brain many times over the years when I wanted to move walls and such. My husband is currently in the hospital under sedation but when he recovers he will be sad to hear about Fred. Our prayers and thoughts are with his family.

“ What I remember most about Fred are the fun times that I had with him, Pat, Deanna, Sandy, Freddie and Sherrie on the camping trips that we went on. Fred would always end up throwing me in the pool. I also remember his love for a Ford car. I remember when Deanna got her first car and Fred told her that if it wasn't a ford she couldn't park it in front of the house.

“ Fred and I have been friends for a very long time. We spent alot of time doing what he loved best, going to car shows, garage sales and The Farmers Market. He was also a great cook! Fred has been a great friend and one who would do anything for you. It's those times that I'll cherish the most. He'll be sadly missed. Till we meet again my friend. My sincere sympathy to Deanna, Sherry, Sandy & Freddie.
