“ I miss my Uncle Wally every day. His kindness and wisdom are missed particularly since the birth of his great granddaughter Sophia Nicole Pleasanton. Every new family member is at a great loss since he's not physically present but we will continue to remember all of Uncle Wally's phenomenal memories to continue his legacy and love of life. He will live on through his many remaining family members striving to emulate his examples of a life well lived.

“ Uncle Wally, sure gonna miss you and you telling me to stop texting and driving. Lol. And when I would visit, to get off the phone. I talked too much. Lol. I am laughing writing this but I knew you meant well. I am glad mom got to make it there and I am there in spirit. Aunt Wilma, I love you and God is with you all of the way.
Love,
Jodi

“ My heartfelt sympathies go out to Wilma and the Gott family on the loss of Wally. My husband Eddie Witt spoke with him often until his passing 2 years ago. Wally called me several months ago to check on me to see how I was doing. I appreciated that kindness, thank you Wally, may you rest in peace.
