“ Vicki, so very sorry for the loss of your brother Duane. I haven't seen you in years, but read of his passing in the local paper. I worked with you at Elk Neck State Park many years ago. You have my deepest sympathies.

“ The world is definitely losing a beautiful soul with this man being gone. He was strong, loving and just a joy to be around. I am honored to have had the chance to meet him. I am thankful for the beautiful girls he brought into this world and raised to be great people. Thank you, Duane, for being you. You are already missed terribly, but heaven is blessed to have gained you as an angel. Until we meet again Prayers to his beautiful family. <3
