“ I am one of the nurses who was sincerely priviledged to take care of George at the Helen F.Graham Cancer Center. I can tell you that George was one of those patients who touch we caregivers deeply and we will never forget his kind, stoic manner as he went through his many chemotherapy treatments, always with a smile and cheery disposition. I can only imagine how dearly he will be missed by his family, as he will forever remain in our hearts.##imported-begin##Julie Auger##imported-end##

“ Linda and Family,
Our hearts are sad to hear about the passing of Googie, we know he is in a better place as is Clifton. They are up there together now celebrating with Jesus. We will always remember the special times we shared at family gatherings, picnics and getting together on New Years. I know dad always looked forward to that to see his family as we all did. Love and Prayers be with you all at this time and know we are thinking of you. You have been blessed to have shared your lives with such a good person.##imported-begin##The Embert's Kenny, Betty Jo, Joey, Amanda & Jeanie ##imported-end##
