Dear Faye, Debbie. Anna, Jimmy, Stacy, and all Family,

At a time like this, words just don't seem to be enough, but all I have for you are my prayers and hope. Prayers for your broken hearts and hope that you remember that we are the ones in pain. Harry is in the arms of God.

And hope that the pain of your loss will get lighter each day. I know all the sorrow will never leave you, but in time I pray it will be a gentle pain to always remember how much Harry loved you all and how much you loved him.

I still can see Harry out in the front yard or walking up the street. He was always a friendly and nice kid and young man. His loss brings back a lot of memories we all shared of Glenville. So many memories.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all, and I know God brings us home when He is ready. He had prepared a place for Harry a long time ago....we are just never ready to say good bye. But love never dies, it stays with us and we take it with us when we leave here. So please remember Harry will always be with you,

*God bless you all in this time of sorrow and always,
Your neighbor and friends,*

“ *To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).*

“ My deepest condolences to the family. When we experience the loss of a loved one the Bible can bring us comfort - Ecc. 9:5 helps us to understand the condition of the dead and John 5:28 tells us there will be a resurrection.
