“ Hamm Family,

I am sorry for your loss. I will miss seeing him at Thursday morning Bible study. Just hearing his voice, his comments concerning some subject. Seeing his Kea pull into the parking lot, blinking his lights as he arrived. He will surely be missed.

“ Dear Drs. Bradley Meir, Lydia and Stacey Cohen and family,

Along with so many others I was personally blessed by your father's life and witness for the Lord Jesus Christ. He definitely was an example of kindness, generosity and joy ~ even in suffering. He abundantly shared his great sense of humor as well as the vegetables he proudly grew, but his greatest pride and joy were his children and grandchildren, the fruit of His love. I for am thankful to have had the privilege to know him and will miss him. He was the real deal.

Sincerely,

“ Howard,
Arlene and I extend our sympathy on the passing of your father to you and your family. His obit describes a man who was engaged in life and Kingdom work through his long life. May you find pride and joy in recalling his life.
Our two recommendations: Take your time as you review everything he has left behind. Read everything. Jim has done that with his parents' materials over several years and has found pleasure and a sort of continuing connection with them. Second, read a copy of Randy Alcorn's HEAVEN. We have found it a wonderful way to imagine the life your father now enjoys.
Blessings and Peace,
Jim and Arlene Stockwell

“ Howard will be missed greatly by his friends at Ogletown. We will miss his smiling face in worship service. It was a joy to get to know him over the last several years. He was a man of integrity and great example of what it looks like to be a disciple of Christ. We will keep your family in prayer in the days and weeks ahead.
