

Ida L. Alleman

September 17, 1924 - November 30, 2021

Ida L. Alleman, 97, of Willow Valley, died of old age on November 30, 2021. She was born in 1924, in Abington Pennsylvania. Mrs. Alleman earned her bachelor's degree with a triple major in Journalism, Economics, and Psychology in 1945 from the University of Pennsylvania. Prior to marriage, she worked for several years as an Editor for College Circulations. She gave up her job to get married and raise a family. Mrs. Alleman, along with her husband, raised three children in Montchanin, Delaware. Her husband of 42 years, Robert G. Alleman, died in 1995. Mrs. Alleman relocated to Willow Valley Retirement Centre where she lived happily and productively for over 20 years. She enjoyed travel and staying connected to her children. Her son, Robert Spencer Alleman died in 2009.

Ida is survived by her twin daughters, Katharine G. Alleman of Springfield Virginia, and Ida M. Alleman of Prince George, British Columbia. She is also survived by her grandson, Kyle Riun Alleman, of Prince George, British Columbia.

Mrs. Alleman will be buried beside her late husband and the burial will be private. To send an online condolence, visit www.stranofeeley.com

Cemetery Details

Private

Tribute Wall

OW

“ Kate,

I was sorry to hear about the death of your mother. I will remember your mother as a warm and gracious lady. You and the members of your family have my deepest sympathy. May the memories of your mother bring you peace and comfort. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. – Matthew 5:4

Oliver Winkfield - December 21, 2021 at 10:10 AM