

Irene Roselea Kasecamp

July 14, 1939 - November 30, 2016

Irene Roselea Kasecamp, age 77, of Wilmington, DE, had every tear wiped from her eyes by her Lord on November 30, 2016. She adored playing games, shopping with her grandchildren, and enjoying family time, particularly when it revolved around a multi-generational love of watching Phillies baseball. Irene was proud of the fact that she worked for one company her whole life. At Avon, she advanced from the assembly line to become a liaison for customer service representatives. Over the years, she took pride in serving as one of the original factory tour guides and helping run the in-house employee store. Irene was active at the Church of the Nazarene in Newark, DE.

Irene is survived by her husband, Charles Thomas Kasecamp Sr.; her son, Charles "Tommy" Kasecamp Jr.; her daughter, Michelle R. Visser and husband William; brother, Giles Roger Moreland (Sandra); sister, Josephine Lambert (Roger); sister-in-law, Maggie Moreland; brother-in-law, Thurman Eaton; numerous nieces and nephews; and six precious grandchildren: Andrew and Averi Kasecamp, Logan, Jordyn, Kayla, and Hayley Visser. Irene was preceded in death by her parents;

“ Aunt Irene was to me soft spoken, always hospitable welcoming us into their home on a few hour notice. My husband and I would visit randomly when we came up from GA. God has a Beautiful Angel arriving in heaven to watch over us. I look forward to seeing her and many others there too when I arrive when my time on earth is done. May all remember and know God`s love and passion as we grieve Aunt Irene`s passing. Peace be with everyone. Love, Betty and Pat

“ Aunt Irene;

I will always cherish / remember our wonderful last moments together that one "special" Saturday at the hospital. Looking back to the good ole' days, our childhood days if you will, at the "Moreland's" farmhouse, nobody made pancakes on the wood burning stove like Aunt Irene and my mom (Naomi). Memories of all the deer seasons, memories of all the family gatherings, times were simple back then but they were the "BEST" times. Our heavy hearts are with Uncle Tom, Tommy and Michelle, your mom was a "special" Aunt, a "special" wife, a "special" mom and she was so proud of her wonderful grandchildren.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Irene's passing. She was a beautiful woman with a heart of gold and was always dedicated to our Lord in every word and action. I worked with Irene for a number of years and was always so grateful for her work ethic, friendship and wise advice. Although I haven't see her for many years, I will never forget this wonderful person. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." Revelations 21:4
