“ I am so sad to hear the news of Jack's passing. We met through Easterseals when his late wife, Jackie, was an ambassador. Jack and I remained in contact even after he moved to NC. It was always such a highlight of my day to speak to him. He was so kind and filled with so many interesting facts. To see his love for Jackie was a beautiful thing. I will miss our conversations and his insatiable thirst for knowledge.

“ Today is October 22, 2025 and I am only just learning that my unhappy suspicion that Jack has passed is true. I left a note on the funeral announcement for his brother, hoping he would be able to get in touch. Jack worked at the The New Castle County Courthouse Museum, with my much-loved, late Boyfriend, David Price.

After his passing, and later the loss of Jackie, Jack and I kept in touch as platonic friends with something in common. We had a very nice time when he came to visit me in my new home in Lititz Pennsylvania. I introduced him to a restaurant down the street which brewed not only its own beer, but its own root beer, and I remember Jack buying a 6-pack of the Root Beer, planning to take it home to his son.

Before Jack's wife Jackie passed, she would astonish everyone with her musical skills and incredible memory for lyrics, to the very end of her life. I would eventually learn that as a couple Jack and Jackie would perform together in community theater productions. What a wonderful life they had together!
