“ Though we were not family; but mere out of state strangers, who came several times a year to camp and stopped for your always plentiful firewood(which we will never find the amount you gave us at those good prices), you always, always made us feel like family! This being said, I wept for quite a little while after receiving the news from your daughter. I am deeply saddened as we have a trip planned in the beginning of July and were so looking forward to stopping in and seeing you.

P.S. Forever grateful for that time you saved our trip to DE when our car broke down and you loaned us yours so we didn't have to be confined to our campsite - as you knew how much we liked fishing and crabbing - that's why you took us out one day for hours just to show us all the good spots! Heck, you even tried to save us camping money by offering us to stay out back in your yard in your motor home! What an amazing man. I'm sure we will never meet another like you! Oh and that toy electric boat you gave us "big kids" to play with, we kind of took it out into the salt water(I think it was meant for lakes and ponds)and flooded the motor, but I promise you Leo has been working hard on it to fix it right back up for ya! That big steamer you use to lend us for our crabs will be missed! The kids knew exactly who I was crying about when I told them and they said, "awww, we liked Mr. Jim". They will miss you taking them through your garden and giving us all those fresh goodies to eat! We shared several dinners out at everybody's favorite - Chinese, and many talks in your kitchen. You just had a way about you that made people thoroughly enjoy being around you and sharing their life stories with! You had a smile that could send away all worries and troubles! You will be very deeply missed Mr. Jim and always admired and respected. God bless.

*With warm thoughts and our sincerest condolences,
your friends in Pennsylvania,
Leo, Vanessa, Teo & Gabby*
