

Janet M. Ludwigson

April 7, 1953 - April 7, 2011

Janet Ludwigson

Age 57, daughter of the late John and Myrtle Ludwigson (of Claymont, DE) departed this world for parts unknown from her home in Lewes, Delaware. She left suddenly and far too soon for those who loved her.

Janet was one of the gentlest, kindest, funniest, most sensitive, generous and compassionate human beings ever to grace this earth with her presence. She loved the natural world and all living things. Her wildlife favorites included birds, butterflies, bunnies, deer, chipmunks, lizards, frogs and praying mantises. That's right, frogs; she once said that frogs knew more about what was going on than any prince. Janet had a healing touch and the greenest of thumbs and could coax a plant to fruit or flower just by talking to it. She felt that the world of humans was far sadder than it needed to be and her frequently offered terse advice to man, woman, child or beast was simply "Be nice."

She was a talented artist and photographer and was passionate about interior decorating, travel, books, boats, camping, hiking, fishing, live music, good conversation and a cold beer. She wrapped gifts so beautifully that it seemed a crime to open them.

Janet was a sucker for sad movies and didn't get along with vending machines. She could spot a four-leaf clover at 10 paces and promptly pick it and give it to anyone lucky enough to be in her vicinity –even if it were a stranger. She could crack you up or cause you to drop your jaw in awe with true stories of her frequent “little adventures” that rival even the most imaginative fiction.

Janet’s face never knew a phony smile –her laughter and her tears were equally heartfelt and genuine, and her sweet hugs were as warm and sincere as a hug can be. She will be forever missed by her three best friends, Bruce, Michael, and Judy (her “soul-sister”) and her beloved canine companion, Cinnamon, who was at her side when she breathed her last. She’ll be greatly missed too by all of her caring friends & neighbors who are all better people because of Janet’s involvement in their lives, as well as by her four feline buddies, Gizmo, You-Too, Socks, and Franchelle.

In accordance with her wishes, memorial services will be private. Donations can be made in her name to a non-kill animal shelter of your choice.

Janet hated goodbyes, so we won’t say it here. Instead we’ll just say...See you on the other side, Sweetie.
