“ I remember Jeff and his family well...we both grew up in Avondale...where I still reside. His father was the Mayor for years and his mother was one of the nicest ladies in town. I bumped into him once or twice through the years and am sorry to learn of his death.

“ *To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. One of my favorite text says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15).*

“ Jeff was one of my best friends at Avon Grove - we lost touch with each other over the years, but I have many fond memories of school and after-school events. I have thought about him often and kept meaning to make contact. I regret that I didn't greatly. RIP, Jeff.

I am truly sorry for the loss of your husband. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the entire family. God made a wonderful promise in Revelation 21:3-5, that (in His Kingdom) there will be no more pain, death, tears, and mourning. May you find comfort in God's promise.
