Joan A. Boc, age 54, of Wilmington, DE, went home to be with the Lord on Friday, October 15, 2010 surrounded by her loving family and friends. Joan suffered a long battle with pancreatic cancer. She was kind and caring with an energetic personality always putting the needs of others before her own. She will be sadly missed.

Joan was preceded in death by her parents, Cas and Doris Boc. Joan is survived by her brother, Richard Boc; sisters, Cynthia Wang and Diane Davis; nieces, Stacey and Jessica; and nephews: Justin, Preston, Chris, and Justin.

The family would like to thank her "special friends" at the Helen F. Graham Cancer Center and the Christiana Hospital for the kindness and care given to Joan and her family.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests contributions be sent to The Lustgarten Foundation for Pancreatic Cancer Research, 1111 Stewart Ave., Bethpage, NY 11714.

“ To Cindy and her family: Mom and I were very sorry to hear of Joanies passing. The first time I met her was when she invited Mom and I to get crabs at the Hunters Den with her mother, Doris. We became friends from that day on. Doris and Joan were so good to my Mother, and she relished her friendship with both of them. We miss them both very much.
I am sure they are both at each others side in heaven, laughing and teasing each other, as they always did. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers so you can get through this difficult time.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Joan's death. What you said about her is so very true. Joan and I worked together at Avon Products, Inc. In fact she and I sat side-by side working. She always talked to me about Justin. The Last time I saw her is when I was at Delaware Park and I heard this voice at one of the slot machines. She and I hugged and talked for awhile. To the family, Joan is wrapped in the blanket of God's love, lifted up and cared for. Miss Me - But Let Me Go! Delores Richardson-29 yr Breast Cancer Survivor

To Diane and your family...I'm not sure that you remember me...we went to high school together...class of '72! I just read Joan's obituary. I remember her back in high school. She was always friendly, and always had a terrific smile! Please accept my condolences at this tragic time in your family's life.
Sincerely, Jack Constantini
