I have no regrets whatsoever with John's passing. My heart, soul and conscience are at peace knowing he is away from your abusive behaviour towards him. I have nothing to feel quilty for or will I ever feel quilty because it was your choice that I wasn't there for him, not mine. You chose not to tell me when he died, so I couldn't be there. So like I said I have nothing to feel quilty for. God will remember all of this on your judgement day rest assured. How do you live with yourself??
