“ My heartfelt condolences to the family. Mr. Joe was my neighbor. He was so kind and considerate and offered to help me often. I remember we were expecting a storm and he advised me to stay with my parents and he would let me know if anything happened to my house. I miss the days of his family living next door.

RIP Uncle Joe you were always one of my favorite uncles. You were always sweet to me. I know my pop loved you and I'll always remember you, my pop and uncle George always gathered together on Sunday dinners at our house when I was young. And how we all catered and joked with one another 💙 you'll be missed very much. Fly high with Joey and the rest of our family members and watch over us all especially Aunt Ruthie! Lots of love to you!
