“ I am very sorry to see the passing of your dear boy. I wanted to stop in and share a Scripture to help comfort the family. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, And He saves those who are crushed in spirit." It is my sincere hope that you all find comfort at present and real hope in the future. -Psalm 37:11. So sorry.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My Grandson Chris Bianchino was a good friend of Kyle's. I use to attend the ball games they played in. Kyle was such a sweet boy. He will be dearly missed.

“ We stumbled upon the website of Kyle's obituary, and I don't even remember how. We are in shock to hear of his passing...our love and prayers to Nolan, James, and Marlene. Kyle was awesome with the little league kids last spring...he helped out Nolan's team in practices, etc. Our son Micah remembers Kyle helping him get better at catching and throwing the baseball. You are in our hearts and prayers especially during this time.

Joe, Erika, and Micah Rodgers (Micah played on the same little league team with Nolan last spring)

“ Such a lose to all, Kyle was a young man that fathers would be proud to have, friends lucky to know, girls will never meet a better example of what a man should be, and people all around respect and want to be with. Rest In Peace Kyle!! Jim and Marlene, I cant even imagine, but please know you raised great kids and your example is what we all need in the world today!
