“ Dear Priscilla,
My heart hurts so bad with the loss of Larry and watching you in so much pain. It is such a helpless feeling knowing there is nothing anyone can do to change it or fix it for you.
You and Larry are our dearest lifetime friends. I thank God for bringing you both into our lives. Larry was the most kind and genuine guy I know. He loved everyone, went with the flow and never talked about anyone. He always gave everyone the "benefit of a doubt." Everyone had a friend in Larry. Larry's real true love was you, his best friend, his soul mate and the love of his life! Larry loved the Lord and knew where he was going. Even though, we were not ready for him to leave us, may you find comfort in knowing Larry is at home with the Lord. May you continue to find peace and understanding in your spiritual walk with God. Embrace all of your family and friends and let them help you through this difficult time. Remember what Carol always told us, "always look vertical, not horizontal". Thank you and your family for always making me feel like "family". You are the sister I never had and your family is the family I never had. You are my best friend!
With much Love and Blessings to you and your family. Diane & Ralph “ Prissy, the loss of a loved one is a devastating blow. Yet, we are always reminded by our hearts – how lucky we have been to know those that we love even in our loss. Larry was the kindest soul and loved so much by all who knew him. We are always here for you.

Love you so much. Keri Jo & Steve

“ Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time. If you are grieving, maybe this will also help you. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ Then he continued: ‘He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.’ I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory and will return in the resurrection.”
