Well Mom, it's been 10 years and I am just now writing this to you. Although I know I don't need to write any of this, because you already know it through all of secret, special talks that NOBODY KNOWS ABOUT OR EVER WILL. I miss you mom, we had a run together that's for sure. However, if we didn't, I wouldn't have learned to be so tough, when the tough came knocking. I wouldn't have learned that one can be tough, ready to fight for anything, but yet to have heart and care at the same time. Your life wasn't easy, and mine sure isn't either. But YOU ARE THE ONE TO TEACH ME TO STAY STRONG AND NEVER GIVE UP. YOU WERE THE ONE WHO TAUGHT ME TO BEWARE OF THOSE WHO TELL YOU THEY CARE AND LOVE AND ALWAYS BE THERE FOR YOU. UNTIL THE TIME COMES AND NOBODY COMES AROUND. YOU TAUGHT ME HAD TO A ROCK, AND NOTHING AND NOBODY IS THERE WHEN IN YOUR TIME OF NEED. BUT MUST KEEP MOVING ON. I THANK YOU FOR THAT, AND ALTHOUGH YOU WERENT ONE WHO SAYS I LOVE YOU, BIT YOU SURE SHOWED IT I. MANY DIFFERENT WAYS. YOU ARE AT PEACE FINALLY AND THAT MOM YOU EARNED. LOVE AND SEE YOU SOON, YOUR ONLY DAUGHTER, DAWNMARIE.

“ Just about every morning Aunt Laura and my dad would talk on the phone. Now everyone that knows our family know how loud they can get, when these two would talk (all the time) they both would talk at the same time and yell (like brother and sisters do) at each other and I usually would hear "words" come out of Aunt Laura to dad! hehehe Dad would say, "oh Laura, stop it with using those words"! I would have to sometimes cut in and say " ok, you two knock it off " :) I will miss those phone calls and I know dad will surely miss them :( I think when the phone rings early, he is waiting to hear Aunt Laura on the line!

“ Aunt Laura was truly one of the back bone's of the Rohrer family here in Delaware. Her moral way of life taught me some lessons of life and she shared them with me. This is how I know her as my Aunt Laura. Always with a smile and I always loved being in the same atmosphere with her. She always made me feel good. One example, Around 50 years ago she was baby sitting for my Mom and Dad. It was bed time, so she put us five in the same bed. That was ok. But after 10 mins She can hear the ruckus going on in the bed room. She said what up. We say someone is folding their legs. She simply said, You should keep your legs straight. You will grow up taller! Bobby and family, I know you'l keep up her legacy As I always will. Family forever.

“ Aunt Laura you are so missed and loved. Thank you for being there for me when I was growing up and for giving me my first and only baby shower when I was pregnant with my daughter Jen. My memories of you are all good and most of all, you always being there when anyone in the family needed anything. I learned so much from my dad's family. We have one big family and if you messed with one you messed with all. I loved the family get togethers and remember all the laughing and joking, sometimes rolling in tears from laughter. You raised two beautiful children most of all your son. I am so proud of him and watched how he took such good care of you when you needed someone. I bet right now you guys are having one heck of a family reunion, that's one reunion I can't wait to attend. Say hi to my dad, mom, David my grandson Logan especially grand mom and grand pop and Michael for me. Tell them I miss and love them to. Love you Aunt Laura.
