

Lillian Jeptoo Saina

April 11, 1967 - April 18, 2023

Lillian Jeptoo Saina of Newark Delaware passed away on April 18, 2023, at Lankenau Hospital in Philadelphia after a long battle with Pancreatic Cancer. She was born in 1967 to Mr. & Mrs. Samson Saina (Kenya). She was sister & sister-in-law to Gideon & Rebecca Saina, Dan & Joan Nyamwega, Ben & Naomi Morara, Wilfred & the late Sharon Bwambok, Martin & Beatrice Otiso, Steve & Judith Mburu, Matthew & Linda Jahonga, Simon & Valentine Makali, Joseph & Faith Onesimus (USA), Andrew & Nelly Karka, Nathan & Lydia Rotich (UK), and a lovely auntie and cousin to Many.

Lillian moved to the USA in 1987 to pursue higher education in Accounting starting at Pinebrook Junior College (Coopersburg PA), transferred to Central Missouri State University (Warrensburg MO) and completed her studies at Columbia College (Columbia MO). She later moved to Newark Delaware where she worked in Healthcare. Lillian was a generous and self-giving person who sacrificed to see others succeed. Lillian was a hard-working person who always kept a smile on her face. Lillian fought a good fight, leaving a massive gap in our hearts. She will be missed and will forever be in our hearts. "The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away. May the name of the Lord be praised (Job 1: 21)".

A visitation will be held Saturday, April 29, 2023, from 1-2:45 PM at Trinity Episcopal Church, 700 Meetinghouse Road, Boothwyn, PA 19061 followed by a service in celebration of Lillian's life at 3 PM. Burial will be private. For directions or to send an online condolence visit www.stranofeeley.com
