“ To Bonnie and Frank: I know that this a difficult time for you both, but I wanted you to know that over the years I have thought of your Mom often. Each time, the fond and lasting memories bring a smile to my face. Even with the sad news of her passing, I can't help but to recall her stubborn strength, wit, beauty, and grace. She was the proud matriarch of a large, loving family. You were blessed to have such a wonderful mother, and she was blessed to have such wonderful children. Most Sincerely, Ken Boulden
